

We are Ontario teachers ... over 100,000 strong!
— a vast intellectual resource of innovation and passion for education.

ontarioteachersnetwork™
is a novel conversation platform, where Ontario teachers can connect and collaborate with colleagues from all over our province.

Help us make OTN an excellent resource for all teachers to become part of the narrative on education in Ontario. Together we can make a difference and create solutions for the future by raising awareness and networking through the internet and social media like never before.
